

Nationally Touring Greenspace Film "A Community Conservation Effort" Returns Home.

After spending a year on tour as part of the Nationally Acclaimed Wild and Scenic Film Festival the Greenspace Film "A Community Conservation Effort" is coming home to the Elizabethtown's Historic State Theater on April 23rd -2022 . The film was a collaborative effort between many local community members, the Sampley Brothers Media Specialist Company Director Jesse Sampley and the films writer, narrator and Executive Producer Matt Deneen. The film's title and synopsis captures the essence of what the film is all about..... A Community Conservation Effort.....

"What started as a small group of conservationists in the early '70s grows into a massive movement that changed the entire course of a community. Greenspace Inc. forms community partnerships and carries the torch of preservation on its way to becoming Kentucky's First Urban Trail Town. "

In the first year of its two-year National Tour the film has already been seen by thousands of people coast to coast and received outstanding reviews. The films debut started in California and quickly spread to Walla Walla Washington, Pittsburgh, PA., Asbury New Jersey, Easton, Maryland, Louisville- Lexington and Morehead Kentucky, Colorado Springs Co., and Bridgeport Connecticut.

Tickets for the 6-9pm Elizabethtown Premier at the Historic State Theater are $25.00 each and includes a one-hour reception from 6-7 pm with vendor booths, lite fare and a cash bar. The films run from 7 pm to 9 pm and will feature several short award-winning conservation films from around the nation.

National Sponsors include Sierra Nevada Brewing, Peak Design, MiiR, Earth Justice and hhmi Tangled Bank Studios
